

About Jane Dean, Licensed Paralegal

After many years of working in the legal system, Jane Dean realized her passion for the law and wanting to give back. She then realized that a future providing legal services in a friendly, respectful, and affordable manner was the career choice for her.

Jane began her legal career as a secretary at the firm of Blakes, Cassels and Graydon in downtown Toronto, Ontario. Since then, she has worked in a variety of roles within the legal profession including working at the Ministry of the Attorney General, the Halton Region Crown Attorney's Office, the Kitchener-Waterloo courthouse and for the Office of the Children's Lawyer.

Education & Licence

In 2016/17, Jane attended Conestoga College's Post-Graduate Paralegal program graduating with high distinction and earned her P1 Licence in 2017. Her extensive experience working in the judicial system and producing transcripts has prepared Jane to assist those that need legal representation and given her a wide breath of knowledge of legal principles amid the legal system.

Authorized Court Transcriptionist

Jane is also an Authorized Court Transcriptionist, able to produce certified verbatim transcriptions for matters heard in the Criminal, Family, and Small Claims Court jurisdictions.
